WETS AND DRY LINE UP FOR BIG OHIO CAMPAIGN

Columbus. — (Special.) — The 1919 Ohio wet and dry campaign is on in earnest. Both sides are lining up their forces for what is believed to be the crucial struggle. Wets have everything to gain and little to lose, except that for them defeat this year means complete elimination so far as this state is concerned. Drys stand to lose much they have gained through the years if they fail to clinch the victory of last November by defeating the wets Nov. 4.

The belief on the part of some people that Ohio wets would not be able to put up a stiff fight this year because the breweries and saloons are outlawed, is not well founded. Wets are coming back strong. Their leaders have their organizations well in hand. There seems to be plenty of money at their disposal. They have hired agents everywhere and expect to conduct a rapid-fire publicity and speaking campaign.

On the surface it would not seem the wets could have much hope of success. Prohibition is even more successful than expected—especially in view of inadequate laws for its enforcement. While there are violations, for the most part the dry amendment is making good. The most rabid wet can not truthfully say prohibition is a failure. Every citizen knows it is successful and that the people generally do not want to go back to saloons, drunkenness, full jails and all the evils of old saloon days.

What, then, are the wets counting on to win?

They believe the drys are satisfied with their victory of last year and that they will not concern themselves about this year's campaign. The wets do not believe farmers and the small town voters will go to the polls Nov. 4. They know that a change of five votes to the precinct will put the state in the wet column and they are counting on the indifference of the drys and on their own activities to make this change.

As usual, the wet campaign is being conducted from Cincinnati. Recently wet workers from over the state were gathered there for encouragement and instruction. They were told Cincinnati would vote as strongly wet this year as in other campaigns, and that if the wets up the state will do their part, the brewers will win.

Dry workers are also busy with organizations in all the counties. They are finding some difficulty in stirring dry voters who got the idea that the campaign last year settled everything. As they realize what the brewers are trying to do, they are shaking off their lethargy and are lining up for the fight. Drys believe that before election day the state will be aflame with dry enthusiasm.

The benefits of prohibition are so apparent that when voters come to understand the brewers are actually trying not only to repeal statewide prohibition, but also to establish beer saloons everywhere in the state and sell beer as freely as lemonade, there is likely to be such an uprising as the state has not witnessed in years.

Aside from this bold move, by bringing a referendum on the Crabbe law enforcement code, the brewers are making a desperate effort to get into position where they can nullify the dry state amendment through lack of law enforcement machinery.

In short, the wets of Ohio are not only attempting to retake the state, which repudiated them a year ago, but if they succeed, it will give them prestige and will encourage them to go into next year's congressional campaign in an effort to elect a congress which will submit an amendment to repeal nation-wide prohibition.

If Ohio drys fully realize what the brewers are attempting—and the dry organization will see that they do—keen-eyed observers predict Ohio's dry majority this year will approximate 75,000.

FLYING PARSON LEADS WESTBOUND AVIATORS

Remarkable Flights Made By
Maynard and Smith.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—Eastbound and westbound flyers met in the air at North Platte, Neb., in the transcontinental reliability race. Lieutenant B. W. Maynard, the "flying parson," spent the night at Cheyenne, Wyo., hundreds of miles ahead of the other westbound aviators, while Captain Lowell H. Smith, well in the lead of the contingent from the west, was at Omaha for the night.

Maynard flew 886 miles, 76 miles more than he covered Wednesday in sailing from New York to Chicago. But his time, chiefly due to adverse weather conditions, which in one form or another extended almost from coast to coast, was slower. He covered a distance of 1,669 miles in two days.

Captain Smith, after struggling through three mountain snowstorms and over three mountain ranges, reached Omaha at 7:29 o'clock last night, having made 852 miles without accident. His total distance since the start at San Francisco is 1,460 miles.

The remarkable flights of Maynard and Smith for two days have made the transcontinental race a record event in this country.

The De Havilland-4 piloted by Lieutenant E. V. Wales, with Second Lieutenant Goldsborough as observer, was wrecked in Ober Pass, Elk mountain. The flyers became lost in the heavy snowstorm and steered their plane into the side of the mountain. Lieutenant Wales was seriously injured.

EMPLOYERS GROUP PRESENTS PLATFORM OF PRINCIPLES

Washington, Oct. 10.—The employers group in President Wilson's industrial conference, headed by Harris A. Wheeler, a Chicago banker, submitted to the conference today a "platform of principles" which the employing interests of the country consider vital in governing the relations that must exist between capital and labor.

Chief among the principles set forth was that the open shop must be maintained throughout the nation. In that part of the platform was this significant statement: "No employer should be required to deal with men or groups of men who are not his employees or chosen by and from among them."

This was generally interpreted as in direct opposition to the principle of international trades unions and the settlement of disputes by international officers. The platform held rigidly to the principle that "outsiders" have not the right to interfere in the relations of employer and employee.

DEFENSES MUST BE BUILT AGAINST GERMAN COMMERCE

Washington, Oct. 10.—Congress must build defenses against German commerce as soon as the peace treaty is ratified, Senator Reed Smoot, Utah, declared today.

"Germany is prepared to flood the United States with dyestuffs, surgical goods and glassware as soon as trade relations are formally resumed and American industry will be forced to compete against prices which will be so low as to be unfair," Senator Smoot believes.

"Every German port of embarkation," he said, "is now loaded with goods which Germany will send to this country the minute peace is declared." Smoot has introduced an "anti-dumping bill" which would give the secretary of the treasury power to forbid importation of goods sold to importers at unfair prices.

ARMY CHIEFS START GREAT TRANS-CONTINENTAL AIR DERBY.

Army chiefs start trans-continental air derby.

The great trans-continental aerial derby in which eighty planes are competing got under way on October 8. More than fifty odd contestants started from Roosevelt Field, Minn. eola, L. I., and at San Francisco a simultaneous start was made by twenty-five more planes. Each plane entered in this record contest has a tested speed of 100 miles an hour, and most of them are piloted by famous aviators. Major-General Barry and Brigadier-General Mitchell, Director of Military Aeronautics, were the official starters. Here are shown prominent army men who officiated at the start of the Eastern contingent of fliers: Left to right, Colonel Archie Miller, commandant of Roosevelt Field; Assistant Secretary of War Crowell, Brigadier-General William T. Mitchell, Director of Military Aeronautics and Major Sagolis, of the French Army.

He is a son of Prof. and Mrs. S. O. Albaugh of 200 Sunset avenue, Dayton and will spend a few days with his parents before proceeding to the southern nation to take charge of the air service there.

"FLYING PARSON" IS KNOWN TO GREENE COUNTY YOUNG MEN

Lieutenant B. W. Maynard, the "flying parson," who is the leader of the west bound aviators in the transcontinental airplane race, is well known to Paul Creswell and William Shadrach. The local men attended ground school at Ohio State University in the same class with Maynard, and bunked only a few feet from him. After they entered active service each saw little of the other. All were commissioned. Lieutenant Creswell went to Italy and Lieutenants Maynard and Shadrach to France.

BAKE RITE BAKERY OPENS IN XENIA

The Bake Rite Bakery, one of the branches of the Bake Rite Sanitary Bakeries Co., which is located on East Main street, will open its doors for the first time Saturday.

The new bakery has prepared for a grand opening and on Saturday will give away a 15-cent loaf of full 24 ounce weight bread to every man or woman calling at their shop with a coupon. The coupons can be clipped from this issue of this paper.

The bakery is in charge of Jack R. Wood, who is general manager, and three bakers are employed. The head cake baker is John Costoni, a Frenchman, who has served six years in the United States army and is now on the reserve list. He holds a letter of commendation from his colonel showing that he broke the army baking record by turning out 58,000 pounds of bread in 24 hours on one occasion.

The baking and mixing is done in the front part of the shop in plain view of the public. People are invited to inspect the new, snowy white baery, and watch the baking process. The free bread offer is only for Saturday and the company will be ready for business Monday. Local men are back of the enterprise.

LOCAL DELEGATES TO AMERICAN LEGION MEETING RETURN HOME

Post Commander C. L. Darlington and Post Adjutant Omer Tate, of Joseph P. Foody Post No. 95, American Legion, have returned from Columbus where they attended the State Convention of the Legion, Wednesday and Thursday, as representative of the local Post.

Both of the local delegates were honored by committee appointments at the convention, Mr. Darlington being a member of the committee on resolutions, one of the most important of committees and Mr. Tate was chairman of the committee on credentials.

Mr. Darlington was also elected a member of the state executive committee representing the southwest division which consists of 19 counties in this section of the state. The state is divided into five of these divisions including southeast, southwest, northeast, northwest and central, and the executive committee of nine includes five delegates from these divisions and four officers of the state organizations, serving ex-officio.

Post Adjutant Omer Tate of Foody Post and Lowell Fess, of Edgar Van Kirk Post, Yellow Springs, were selected at the convention to represent the Southwest Division at the National Convention, which will be held in Minneapolis, November 11. Greene county thus getting two representatives. Paul B. Turnbull, Vice Commander of Foody Post, was elected alternate to this convention.

The result of the convention will be reported to Joseph P. Foody Post at a meeting which will be called, soon, by the two delegates who attended it. Some very important issues were before the convention, the bonus question being bitterly fought, the state finally taking no action on the matter.

One of the most important issues passed on at the convention, was the establishment of a county council of Legionnaires to be located in the county seat. Three delegates from each of the Posts in the county will sit in the county council, thus giving each Post representation. At present the council located here will consist of three delegates from Foody Post, three from Yellow Springs and three from Jamestown, and as other posts are organized they will be given representation.

The soldier's insurance was given much time before the convention, and a number of bills concerning it were introduced, all of which were discarded in favor of the bill the Legion is now backing, which provides for a much better system and a more attractive operation of the insurance plan. This bill is now being rushed through by Senator Harding, and Foody Post will bring a speaker here to explain its workings after it is passed.

STILL IMPROVING

Washington, Oct. 10. — President Wilson's condition is becoming so favorable—although the progress is slow—that his health is soon expected to be such that it will allow Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, his personal physician to discontinue—probably at the close of this week—his daily bulletins on the president's condition of health.

This was learned authoritatively in White House circles today.

BLOCKADES GERMANY

ARBITRATION OF STEEL STRIKE IS URGED BY LABOR

Washington, Oct. 10.—Proposals designed to bring about better relations between employers and the employed were laid before the national industrial conference by members of the various groups making up the gathering. The proposals included:

Arbitration of the nation-wide steel strike with return of the men to work pending settlement; an industrial truce starting immediately and continuing three months; creation of an arbitration board by the president and congress and including among its members all ex-presidents; and a comprehensive plan for adjudication of industrial disputes through boards of arbitration in the various industries.

The conference also took its first concrete action in adopting a motion, offered by Thomas L. Chadbourne, a representative of the public, providing that a committee consisting of three members from each of the groups of employers, labor and the public, be appointed to investigate the high cost of living.

The proposal for settlement of the steel strike, introduced by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor and one of the delegates, came as a surprise to the groups representing the public and employers. In offering the proposal, Mr. Gompers explained that it had the support of the labor delegates, including the representatives of the railroad brotherhoods. The proposal, like all others submitted, under the conference rules was referred to the general committee, composed of five representatives of each group. It generally was believed that the proposal would be in the hands of this committee for some time.

As chairman of the public group Bernard Baruch introduced the proposal for an industrial peace, formulated by A. A. Landon of Buffalo, and the plan that a national board of conciliation and arbitration be created, which was put forward by Gavin McNab of San Francisco. In offering the proposals Mr. Baruch explained that he was merely acting for his group and that under the conference rules the introduction of the proposals did not indicate either that the proposals set forth the chairman's views or that they had the indorsement of the group.

The proposal for adjustment of labor disputes through joint boards of employers and workers in each industry, with appeal to central boards appointed by the president and a final appeal to an umpire, also came from the public group. It was drafted by Secretary of Labor Wilson.

Mrs. J. C. Finney entertained twenty-five guests Thursday afternoon of this week at a miscellaneous shower given for her niece, Miss Louisa Finney, whose marriage to Mr. Ernest Huey will take place October 30th. Miss Finney is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Finney. She was a graduate of Cedarville college last June. Mr. Huey was a student of the same college last year and is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Huey of Cedarville.

SENATOR WALSH IS AGAINST THE WORLD LEAGUE

Washington, Oct. 10. — Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, in a speech in the senate, made a dramatic appeal for a league of nations that would do justice to oppressed nations of the world, and for reservations to the pending league covenant.

Vice President Marshall at the conclusion of the senator's speech, broke up in its very beginning a demonstration that threatened for a moment to sweep through the senate galleries.

For more than an hour senators and visitors had listened intently to the address, and as Senator Walsh laid down the last page of his manuscript and, with arms raised high, pleaded against approval of the Shantung settlement "and the dangers lurking in article 10" of the league covenant, a faint ripple of applause was instantly followed by a more pronounced outburst. But it was quickly subdued. The strident voice of the vice president was heard above the rising din. "Remove from the galleries those who have violated the rules of the senate," the vice president shouted, at which gallery guards hustled out a few of the offenders.

The speech of Senator Walsh drew a large attendance, and because of the uncertainty as to where he stood he received undivided attention. He quickly cleared away all doubt, however, and frankly announced his regret at parting with his Democratic colleagues in voting for treaty reservations, and in so doing declared he was not breaking away from his party principles.

Touches Upon Article 10. Contending that under article 10 American soldiers could be ordered to any part of the world by the league council, Senator Walsh turned to senators on his own side of the chamber and asked: "May I not fairly argue that this article is capable of so many interpretations, vague and visionary, that as it stands it is pregnant with germs of dispute, misunderstandings and possibly wars for the United States?"

Americans of Irish blood, Senator Walsh said, merely were asking "the United States not to join in any league or make any agreement with other nations which may hinder or forever bar oppressed peoples from obtaining independence." Those of Irish blood, he told the senate, were not opposed to a just league of nations and did not seek in any way to involve the United States in a controversy with Great Britain.

With much feeling Senator Walsh declared that speaking the uppermost convictions of Irish-Americans, more than a half million of whom were in the war, that as "much as they yearned to see their kindred free, much as their hearts are torn by the events in Ireland, by the harassing, dragging and repression of the people of that sad little island, as citizens of this republic their first concern is for the safety, honor and preservation of this land of their birth and adoption."

Referring to President Wilson's statement that "America was trusted throughout the world," Senator Walsh said, "surely not by representatives of the British empire, or by Japan."

The other speeches were by Senator France, Republican, of Maryland, who gave the second installment of his 35,000-word address begun Wednesday, and Senator Nelson, Republican, Minnesota, who told in 30 minutes of his strong desire to see a lasting peace that would forever shut out the threat of war.

TWO SHOTS FIRED AT U. S. SENATORS

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 10.—Just as Senators Kenyon and McKellar of the steel strike investigating committee stepped from an automobile at the gates of the Homestead steel works today, two shots were fired from a passing street car. The senators rushed into the offices of the plant while the state constabulary rushed the car and arrested a number of foreigners. No one was hurt by the shooting.

Senators Phipps and Sterling arrived at the plant several minutes earlier.

BE PREPARED FOR INFLUENZA

CUT THIS OUT.
Many medical men say we will probably have another epidemic this fall. Let us all hope and pray we will not. But at the same time let us be well prepared.
The flu as it is called, usually starts with a cold and tightness in the chest. If you even suspect there is a chance that you may be getting influenza take a good dose of laxative tea, such as Dr. Carter's K & B Tea or Celery King and send for your physician. While you are waiting for the doctor rub Begg's Mustard on throat and chest. Rub it on freely and never mind if it does feel good and hot, it cannot blister even the tenderest skin.
But don't stop at throat and chest; get some one to rub this enemy of inflammation over your shoulder blades. This is one of the most sensible precautions you can take against pneumonia which often quickly follows the flu and is just what the doctor tries hard to sidetrack.
You can get Begg's Mustard for 25 and 50 cents in yellow boxes all ready for use at any drug store.
Remember it is made of real yellow mustard. Use it for sore throat, coughs, chest, colds, pleurisy, bronchitis, lumbago and all aches and pains.

COURT DISCHARGES TWO YOUNG GIRLS

Mabel and Dorothy Webb, aged 16 and 13 years old of Bellbrook, were discharged from custody by Judge J. C. Marshall after a hearing on a delinquency charge in juvenile court Thursday morning. The girls will be kept under close supervision by the court, and their parents promised Judge Marshall that they would be kept off the streets and watched closely.

John and Charles Pence, 123 East Second street Dayton, who were with the girls when they were taken into custody at the soldiers home last Saturday night told the same story to the court as was told by the girls. They said that they met the girls at 11:40 last Friday night in front of their rooming house, where the girls were waiting for them in a taxi in which they had ridden from Spring Valley. John paid the taxi driver $5 and the two couples roamed about, according to their story, until 2 o'clock, when the boys left the girls at St. Clair and Second streets. The boys said they went on home, and that the girls told them they would go to the home of a cousin. The Pence brothers are aged 21 and 23.

Mac Webb, father of one of the girls, is a cripple due to rheumatism and had to be carried into court in a chair.

AT FRIENDS CHURCH

Many people in this section remember Rufus P. King, onw of North Carolina, when he used to be about here. Thirty to fifty years ago he was a familiar minister to Friends Meetings. He has come back for a visit to this territory, combining social pleasure with religious instruction. He will occupy the pulpit at the Friends church next Sabbath morning. At night he will give an interesting account of his trip around the world a few years ago. All are invited to hear him.

On October 19 will be Rally Day for Bible School and Church. A short program will be given by the Bible School, and then Rev. Truman C. Kenworthy, of Richmond, Indiana, will give an address. At the preaching hour Rev. Kenworthy will bring the message. Xenia people will remember him as the evangelist at the Friends church two years ago.

On the evening of October 23 there will be a congregational supper, to which all members and friends of the church are invited. Following the supper Rev. Ira C. Johnson, of Lynn, Indiana, will bring a spiritual message.

CATCHY, inviting fox-trots, played by Jazz Bands and Syncopated Orchestras; they're better when you hear them on The Brunswick. Put on a waltz record and see if you can keep from dancing.

Let us play The Brunswick for you and explain The Brunswick Method of Reproduction. Hear it once and you will pronounce it superior. Harsh, metallic sounds are gone. In orchestra records each instrument preserves its individual quality of tone.

When you possess a Brunswick, your choice of records can be made from the lists of all makers. By a simple device—the Utopia—any record can be played. You are not restricted to the artists of one concern. All are at your command.

The Brunswick Amplifier is a vibrant tone chamber of wood. Not a single piece of metal is used in its construction. Like a violin, it develops full, round, singing tone.

We invite you to hear The Brunswick—the master instrument. Come in at any time of day, and we will play your favorite records.

AN INTERESTING CEREMONY HELD AT ST. BRIGID'S CHURCH

With impressive services, the sacrament of confirmation was administered to a class of 68 children and three adults by the Most Rev. Henry Moeller, archbishop of the diocese of Cincinnati, at St. Brigid's church last night.

The children made a most attractive picture, the little girls in white frocks with short filmy veils falling about their shoulders, and the boys wearing white blouses and dark knickerbockers. The altars were banked with white flowers and lighted tapers.

Prior to administering confirmation Archbishop Moeller gave a discourse touching upon parish affairs, matrimony, education, but his chief topic was the Holy Eucharist.

The service closed with solemn benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The pastor, the Rev. Albert Burke, was assisted by the following visiting clergymen, who took part in the service: Very Rev. Bernard O'Reilly, S. M., Mt. St. John; the Rev. William O'Conner, Jamestown; the Rev. William Casey, South Charleston; the Rev. Martin Varley, and the Rev. Jerome O'Regan of Cincinnati; the Rev. Edward Deppenbrock, Yellow Springs; the Rev. John McGlinchey, West Jefferson; the Rev. Charles Ertel, Wilmington; The Rev. James Ward and the Rev. James Wade, Dayton.

Archbishop Moeller left Xenia for Dayton immediately following the services, and took a late train from that city to Cincinnati. He was the guest of Father Burke Thursday afternoon and for dinner Thursday evening, when visiting clergymen were also entertained.

HAVE YOU A STOVE TO SELL?

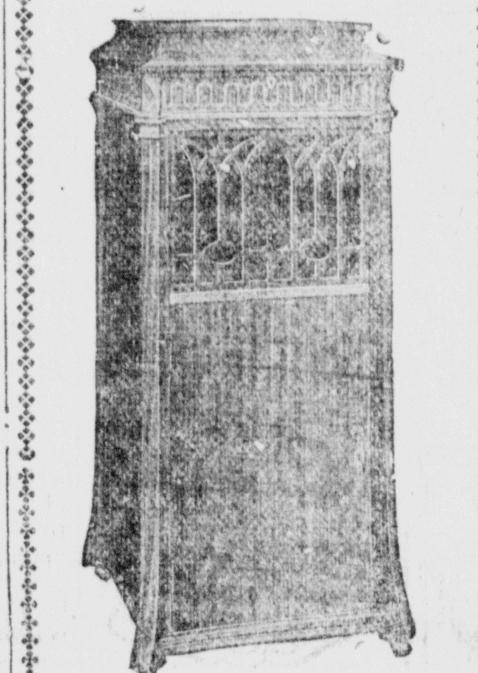

In complaining about her paper being late one evening this week, one of our subscribers living at the edge of town said that they had been wanting a stove, and were waiting to find one through the classified ads, and as their paper was late it gave others a chance to get the stoves that were advertised before they could. This proves the confidence placed by the public in classified advertising, and if you have any stoves or other articles you want to sell, remember that there is someone just waiting for them to be advertised. Read and use the classified ads daily.

Seven Things To Be Sure Of IN THE PURCHASE OF YOUR PIPELESS HEATING SYSTEM

- 1 That the quality of heating service assures a comfortable, clean, healthful home in any weather.
- 2 That the convenience of simple operation, regulation, and quick heating compares favorably with much more expensive types of heating systems.
- 3 That the low first cost is due to economy of material and labor instead of cheapness of construction.
- 4 That the fuel bill can be reduced from 1-4 to 1-3 — enough to save handsome dividends on the amount invested.
- 5 That the "upkeep," or expense for repairs, is positively less than any other types of heating systems.
- 6 That you are protected at this store, because of the manufacturer's refusal to authorize installation where their trained heating engineers cannot safely guarantee it to operate efficiently in your home, their decision being made after careful study of conditions in your home — no guess work — thus protecting all concerned.
- 7 That the purchase will increase the value of your property more than the amount invested.

LABOR TROUBLE NOT HITTING CLEVELAND.

Cleveland has been cited by national investigators as being freer from industrial disputes than most other large centers of industry in the country, due to the advanced state of co-operative effort between employers and employees. One of the foremost advocates of the theory of giving workers a voice in the management is Paul L. Feiss, president of the Chamber of Commerce and head of a large clothing manufacturing company. He was chosen by President Wilson to be one of the representatives of the public in the national round-table conference in Washington to discuss questions of labor and its relation to capital.

To further efforts in this direction Mayor Harry L. Davis has issued a call for the organization of a municipal round table, to be similar to the national council, but to be a permanent advisory body. Five members are to be appointed from delegates proposed by the Chamber of Commerce, five from those proposed by the Federation of Labor and five selected by the Mayor to represent the public. The function is to interpret industrial problems.

In Mr. Feiss's factory there is an organization of workers based on the national assembly. Delegates are elected by the workers and to this factory legislative body grievances and suggestions for the benefit of employees and company are placed. The powers of the body give the employees virtually the right to determine hours and wages, with the company representatives frankly opening its books and showing whether changes are possible at times.

The employees are granted a week's vacation yearly with pay. Schools are conducted for the advancement of the workers, on factory time. Officials say production has increased.

Of the national conference, Mr. Feiss says: "It is clear that in the struggle between capital and labor the public suffers. A stabilized labor condition will mean elimination of the cost of strikes."

THE WAY TO GET TRADE IS TO GO FOR IT.

An Argentine went into the Buenos Aires saleroom of an American automobile concern, and after looking over several cars said:

"I like this one—how many weeks before you can make delivery?"

"You can have it now," said the salesman.

"What! You mean that I can have this identical car today?" exclaimed the Argentine doubtfully.

"Yes, this very car," said the salesman. "You can drive it out the door there. I will teach you to drive."

"Car-ramba!" exclaimed the Argentine in astonishment.

Up to that time the Argentines had been accustomed to selecting an automobile of European make by sample at the Buenos Aires importers' showroom and waiting several months until the car itself could be shipped from Europe. When the Americans came with a stock of cars on hand, ready to sell right over the counter, and, better yet, a complete stock of repair parts, backed by willing service when the car owner got into trouble, it was something new.

CONTRACT FOR PAVING IS LET

At the regular meeting of the City Commission Thursday evening, the contract for the street paving was officially awarded to J. E. Conley, contracting engineer of Dayton.

The contract for the sewer work was also officially awarded to C. O. Wetzel, of Dayton. Both were lowest bidders for the work. No further business of importance was taken up by the commission.

HIGH PRICES ARE SECURED AT SALE

Unusually high prices for a small sale were received at the public sale of Joseph H. Michener, held at his farm in the Peterson neighborhood Thursday.

The sale totalled $2,000 which was considered good for the size of the sale. Three head of horses, 8 head of cattle, 14 hogs, farm implements and harness sold on the block.

R. R. Grieve and John Webb were the auctioneers and J. E. Sutton, clerk. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Union church served lunch.

ENGINEER IS ENGAGED BY CITY

John Flotron Hale, of Dayton, nephew of S. O. Hale of this city, and a graduate of the engineering school at Ohio State University, has been retained as engineer for the city during the paving work.

Mr. Hale has been employed in the engineering department of the city of Dayton for some time. He started to work Friday morning. Mr. Hale takes the place of John W. Guilday, who has returned to school at the University at Cincinnati and who will assist in the city engineering department, on alternating two weeks when the does not go to school.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach.

Says Inside-bathing makes anyone look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside-bathing. Men and women who are accustomed to wake up with a dull, aching head or have furred tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, shallow complexion, others who have bilious attacks, acid stomach or constipation are assured of pronounced improvement in both health and appearance shortly.

Loves Her Cows and Chickens Again.

"I have had stomach trouble for twenty years and for the past year have eaten nothing but stale bread and drank hot water was too weak to do any kind of work. Six weeks ago I took the first dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and am now doing all my housework besides looking after my chickens and milking two cows every day. Mine has been a wonderful recovery." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

MISS KELLY RETURNS; DENIES SHE IS ENGAGED TO KING

Miss Josephine Marie Kelly.

Miss Josephine Marie Kelly of Chicago, a beautiful young Red Cross worker, who is said to have captivated King Alexander of Greece, returned home recently denying she is betrothed to the young ruler. Miss Kelly's conquest of the young Grecian ruler is said to have been made when she went to his land for Red Cross service after serving in France, England and Italy. Miss Kelly says she met King Alexander at a ball in the Royal Theater in Athens one night. The King danced with her and invited her to tea at the palace. Miss Kelly's uncle, Wm. Hyland, owner of the Hotel Lorraine of New York, confided that she had already picked her husband an American.

MORAL—DON'T BORROW

A man who was too stingy to subscribe for his home paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by a neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a $4 stand of bees and in ten minutes looked like a warty summer squash. His father ran to his assistance, and failing to notice the barbed wire fence, ran into that, cutting a hole in his anatomy and ruining a $5 pair of trousers. The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the corn field and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing a racket, the wife ran out, upset a four-gallon churn full of cream into a basket of little chickens, drowning the entire hatch. In her haste she dropped a $5 set of false teeth. The baby, having been left alone, crawled through the milk into the parlor, ruining a brand-new $25 carpet. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up 11 setting hens and the calves got out and chewed the tails of four fine shirts on the clothes line.—Seabee (Ky.) Banner.

HOOVEN AND ALLISON COMPANY PUTS NEW GUARANTEED ROPE ON MARKET

CORDAGE MILLS
HOOVEN & ALLISON CO., XENIA, OHIO

"Blue Heart" is the trade mark of a new guaranteed rope that is being placed on the market by The Hooven & Allison Company. It is the very last word in high class rope. When this company which has always had the reputation of making the very best rope on the market puts its stamp on this new "Blue Heart" rope proclaiming it better than any yet produced by this world famous company, then it must be real rope. The new rope is being placed on the market by means of a national advertising campaign in twelve magazines of national reputation. Later the campaign will probably be continued in the smaller publications and daily papers. "Blue Heart" rope is made in various sizes from three-sixteenths of an inch to over two inches in diameter. It is guaranteed to excel the breaking strength required by the United States Bureau of Standards and it is shown by tests conducted by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology as the strongest commercial rope in the United States. This new grade of rope has been developed during two years of experiments and was put on the market during the past few months. The rope is identified by a blue cord run through the heart of the rope. It is the trade mark and the company's guarantee. The Hooven & Allison Company has been making cordage since 1869 and since that time has grown to be one of the greatest cordage making concerns in the world. It is rated as the third largest cordage company in the world, having four plants at Xenia

North Kansas City, Mo., Covington, Ky., and Cincinnati. The floor space of the four plants covers twelve acres of ground and the plant space of the four concerns is thirty-six acres. Xenia is to be congratulated upon having such a splendid industry situated within its gates as it has materially helped to advertise Xenia throughout the United States and the world.

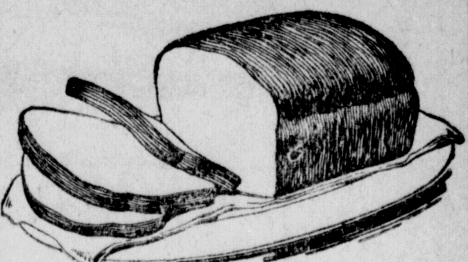

BRIDGE PARTY AT ADAIR HOME IS CHARMING EVENT

The attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adair, North Galloway street, was lovely in autumn decorations Thursday evening, for their bridge party, when forty-four guests enjoyed their hospitality.

Hydrangea and the graceful ribbon grass was used in the house, while vines, and the scarlet berries of the bittersweet add a touch of loveliness to the enclosed porch. The yellow shaded lamps cast a prettily tinted glow.

After the games, and when the scores had been counted, a two course supper was served at the card tables. The out of town guests at the affair were Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Waddell of Pittsburg, who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Adair.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adair will have another larger company for bridge next Tuesday evening.

INVESTIGATION OF HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING MAY SOON BE MADE

An investigation of the Centralintendent C. A. Waltz led the discussion of the high school building to see if it is in line on "What the Public Schools of Xenia need." Superintendent Waltz brought out the fact that while the school was superer Thursday evening, when Super-posed to hold a fire drill once a month that in view of the fact that the building seemed unsafe when all of the children were moving, that he considered it more disastrous than an actual fire. He advocated the erection of a new building.

Mr. Waltz also spoke on the subject of salaries. He said that 50 per cent of the teachers in the public schools were inexperienced because Xenia did not pay enough to secure experienced teachers. C. A. Waltz lead the discussion on the subject of the school until they had their experience the teachers went to cities where they could command more money. "We are simply training teachers for Columbus, Cincinnati and other cities," he said.

Mr. Waltz cited that the average teacher's salary is $16.50 a week, which is not a living wage. He said that a girl who quit school in the seventh grade recently was quitting to take a position at $18.50 a week, which is more than her teacher is getting.

There are also a number of backward children in the schools, who should be taken care of by special extra teachers, separate from the rest of the classes. His address aroused the interest of the people present who urged that the building be investigated as to its safety and if it is not safe to close it up at once.

H. L. Sayre acted as Chairman of the meeting, which was opened by a High School song led by Lawrence Riddell, president of the Senior class, who was present with a number of High School students.

In brief talks following Mr. Riddell favored the erection of a new school building and John Beachem, business manager of the school, urged that the citizens visit the school more frequently.

RESTORES VITALITY

Gives Strength to the Nervously Weak and Run-down.

Peptrion is both medicine and food for the blood and nerves. It is in full accord with advanced science as to the proper treatment of anemic and neurasthenic condition, in which the need of more and better nourishment is so apparent. It combines iron and manganese with nux, celery, pepsin and other tonics and digestives. It supplies the deficiency of red blood corpuscles in anemia, repairs the waste of nerve tissue in nervousness, gives color and stamina and restores vitality.

"I was run down and nervous. Peptrion has done me great good." Serena Rifenburg, Tivoli, N. Y.

WALTER HESS IS GIVEN A SURPRISE

One of the most enjoyable times of the season was that given at the home of Mr. Walter Hess of the Upper Bellbrook pike Wednesday evening, when Mrs. Hess entertained at a surprise party, honoring Mr. Hess. The occasion was his birthday. About one hundred friends and relatives were present. Music, games and social chat formed the amusement for the evening. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and mints were served by the hostess, assisted by the Misses Golda Fawcett and Mildred Funk.

Catarrh Of the Stomach Is Dangerous

"Thousands Have It and Don't Know It," Says Physician. Frequently Mistaken for Indigestion—How to Recognize and Treat.

Thousands of people suffer of more or less constantly from furred, coated tongue, bad breath, sour burning stomach, frequent vomiting, rumbling in stomach, bitter eructations, gas, wind and stomach acidity and call it indigestion when in reality their trouble is due to catarrh of the stomach. Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because the mucous membrane lining of the stomach is thickened and a coating of phlegm covers the surface, so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the food and digest them. This condition soon breeds deadly disease in the fermented unassimilated food. The blood is polluted and carries the infection throughout the body. Gastric ulcers are apt to form and frequently an ulcer is the first sign of a deadly cancer.

In catarrh of the stomach a good and safe treatment is to take before meals a teaspoonful of pure Bisurated Magnesia in a half a glass of hot water as hot as you can comfortably drink it. The hot water washes the mucus from the stomach walls and draws the blood to the stomach while the bisurated magnesia is an excellent solvent for mucus and increases the efficiency of the hot water treatment. Moreover the Bisurated Magnesia will serve as a powerful but harmless antacid which will neutralize any excess hydrochloric acid that may be in your stomach and sweeten its food contents. Easy, natural digestion without distress of any kind should soon follow. Bisurated Magnesia will serve as a powerful but harmless antacid which will neutralize any excess hydrochloric acid that may be in your stomach and sweeten its food contents. Easy, natural digestion without distress of any kind should soon follow. Bisurated Magnesia is not a laxative, is harmless, pleasant and easy to take and can be obtained from any local druggist. Don't confuse Bisurated Magnesia with other forms of magnesia, milk, citrates, etc., but get it in the pure bisurated form (powder or tablets), especially prepared for this purpose.

Famo Makes Women's Hair Grow Luxuriantly

Beautiful, healthy, lustrous new hair comes to the head on which FAMO is used regularly.

Women have reported to us that their hair grew as much as four to six inches after faithful and conscientious use of FAMO, which is the one hair preparation which can be used daily with beneficial results.

It also grows men's hair, even where baldness is beginning to appear. Unless the hair roots are absolutely dead, FAMO will grow hair.

FAMO grows new hair because it destroys the scabrous germ which is killing the hair.

The scabrous bacilli go down into the glands and attack the hair roots. Unless they are destroyed they will eventually kill the hair.

With the germ at work the hair is fighting for its life. Nature fights against disease. But it cannot conquer alone.

FAMO will give the necessary aid to assure a healthy scalp.

FAMO will destroy the dandruff bacilli and make the hair grow luxuriantly.

It stops all itching of the scalp. FAMO is the result of three years of scientific experimentation in one of the recognized pharmaceutical laboratories of Detroit.

Its ingredients have been well known to physicians for years but have never before been used on the head.

FAMO has accomplished wonderful results. Every member of the family should use it regularly. It contains no alcohol.

FAMO is sold at all toilet goods counters and applications may be had at the better barber shops and hair dressing establishments.

It comes in two sizes—a small size at 35 cents and an extra large bottle at $1. Your money will be refunded if you are not satisfied.

Seborrhea is the medical name for a morbidly increased flow from the sebaceous glands of the scalp. The seborrhean secretion forms in scales or flakes and is commonly known as dandruff.

TELEPHONE YOUR WANT ADS TO THE GAZETTE

GREAT CROWD WATCHES GAZETTE BASEBALL SCORES

A crowd that almost blocked traffic on South Detroit street waited for the final baseball returns in front of the score board in the office of the Gazette and Republican Thursday afternoon.

The crowd was the largest that took advantage of the score board service of these papers any time during the series, due in all probability, to the importance of the final fracas. Fans in vehicles stopped in the street and traffic was practically suspended as they waited anxiously for the result of the final frame, which proclaimed the Reds the base balling champions of the universe.

The Gazette and Republican service on the big series was in every way satisfactory to the patrons of these papers. The city edition of the Gazette was held every evening for the game, and the bugs here were given the story every evening. The papers were put on the streets anywhere from 45 minutes to an hour and fifteen minutes before the baseball editions of the Dayton papers and at least three hours before the sport extras of the Cincinnati papers. Thursday evening, the baseball edition of the Gazette was being sold on the streets an hour and fifteen minutes before there was another paper in the city.

The Gazette and Republican ticker service proved more popular with the fans this year than any service employed by these papers in other years. The inning was barely completed until the Western Union ticker tattooed the results on the tape in the office of these papers.

In this manner, the score, and the totals, the weather, batteries and umpires, which is all that the bug cares for in the early returns, were given him without a moment's delay. The city edition then, giving the story of the game, was on the streets just a few minutes following the final returns.

When this series is pulled off again, these papers will be in a much better situation to cope with it. After the installation of the new press part of which is here now, we will be equipped to issue extras on a minute's notice, and had it been installed before the big series, we could have made even better time than was accomplished.

CABINET GIRL TO WED ON NOVEMBER 1.

Miss Mary Archer Glass. Photo by CLINEHART.

Miss Mary Archer Glass, daughter of the Secretary of the Treasury, will be married on November 1 to John Guerrant Boatwright, of Danville, Va., according to a report from Washington. The ceremony will be performed at the Church of the Covenant and a reception will follow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glass. Miss Glass is perhaps more widely known in Washington than any member of the family save the Secretary himself, as she was educated at Gunston Hall and was a great deal with her father while he was serving in Congress. Mr. Boatwright has recently been released from the army, having served overseas as a lieutenant of infantry.

THOSE EAR BOBS

Here is a picture of a dozen women in a newspaper. They are all charming women, with beautiful faces and poses except one. And what is the matter with her? She wears over her ear knobs of hair that make her look ridiculous and inhuman. So many girls wear those knobs these days, but if the matter were inquired into it would be found that the habit is confined to the silly young things who have an idea it is the fashion. But why should the little dears care for the fashion? Aren't they prettier than any fashion? Aren't their ears as lovely as their eyes and lips? Verily, there may be some who want to hide their ears because of some deformity and so it is would conclude from the multitudes of perfectly natural they should. One the ear bobs that there were a great many deformed ears about, and we would caution young men not to fall in love with them.

CHINA'S MOST HOLY TEMPLE

Inclosure Within Which is Altar of Heaven for Centuries Consecrated to Use of Emperor.

The Temple of Heaven in Peking is a Chinese temple without idols, a temple sacred to the use of Chinese emperors; and finally, a temple that is not one building, but a park several miles in area, with wonderful pagodas and altars scattered among its groves.

The Temple of Heaven has been for centuries as it is now. There is a red tiled wall inclosing a grove, and within, a yellow tiled wall inclosing another grove, with blue-roofed temples in unexpected places. In the most secluded spot is the Altar of Heaven, the temple's holy of holies.

The Altar of Heaven is a series of broad terraces and steps of white marble, leading to a circular platform of marble. On this elevated platform, under the open sky, the emperors of the old Chinese empire knelt twice a year to offer sacrifices to the spirit of heaven. On lower steps of the altar knelt the courtiers, while the emperor went through traditional rites and offered prayers and rolls of costly silks.

This Altar of Heaven is said by the Chinese to be the center of the earth. In proof of this the sightseer is today allowed to stand on the top of the altar, the place so long reserved for emperors only, and tap the marble so that he may note the hollowiness of the earth below.

Since the last living representative of the dragon prayed for prosperity at the Altar of Heaven, the temple has become neglected and moss grown. A president of China offered to sacrifice for the people at the emperor's altar, but the spirit of old China was stronger than he calculated. The Altar of Heaven is still untended.

DIDN'T SEE MUCH OF FIGHT

Rider on Elephant Attacked by Leopard and Chiefly Occupied in Sticking to His Seat.

A scene that to the spectator might have been ludicrous, but that to the man who took a leading part proved more exciting than amusing, is described by C. E. Gouldsbury.

He was traveling through an Indian jungle when a leopard sprang out and seized the elephant on which he was riding by the trunk. Mr. Gouldsbury had no time to think—much less to raise his gun.

"What happened immediately afterward," he says, "I never could quite tell, for during the next few minutes I was not in a position favorable for observation. All I can remember is that our movements were extremely rapid and irregular, bringing me at times dangerously close to the leopard, which still retained his hold."

"The elephant, in its efforts to rid itself of the tenacious brute, was dancing about with an agility strangely at variance with its otherwise solemn and dignified appearance. Fortunately, the tussle did not last long, and the next thing I remembered was seeing the leopard hurled violently back into the jungle, where it lay, fully exposed to view, growling savagely, but showing no intention of renewing the struggle."

"The elephant stood quiet for a moment, and, taking advantage of the opportunity, I put a bullet through the leopard's head; then, forcing the elephant quickly through the scrub, I made good the distance between us."

—From "Life in the Indian Police."

CHARGE THAT WON FLOTILLA

Remarkable Exploit of South American Llaneros When Operating With General Simon Bolivar.

The Llanero of South America lives on horseback. He trades, buys and sells on horseback, and during the war with Spain the Llaneros contributed much toward achieving the independence of Venezuela and New Granada.

There is related a story of an occasion when it was necessary for Bolivar's army to cross the Apure to engage Morillo. But Bolivar had no boats and the Apure at this point was wide and deep.

The Spanish flotilla was guarding the river opposite to the patriot forces. Bolivar was in despair. Turning to Paez he said, "I would give the world to have the Spanish flotilla; without it I can never cross the river."

"It shall be yours in an hour," replied Paez.

Selecting 300 of his Llanero lancers, all distinguished for strength and bravery, he said, pointing to the gunboats, "We must have these flechas or die. Let those follow who please."

Spurring his horse he dashed into the river and swam toward the flotilla. The Llaneros followed with their lances in their hands, now encouraging their horses by swimming beside them and patting their necks, now shouting to scare away the crocodiles, of which there were hundreds. At last they reached the other side and sprang from their horses' backs on board the boats, headed by their leader. To the astonishment of every one they actually captured the entire flotilla.

Cultivate the Memory.

Back of the idea of cultivating a memory is the keener edge it puts on the brain generally, which is the making of the more attractive person. Is there anything duller than a woman who is just too lazy minded to try to remember names and places and has to refer constantly to a third person for aid in telling an incident?—Exchange.

YOUNG CHILDREN SHOULD BE KEPT OUT OF INDUSTRY

The Chief Medical Officer of the Board of Education of Great Britain in his annual report makes the following statement: "The increase in the employment of children has demonstrated beyond all question of doubt that many boys and girls are being spoilt, physically, mentally and morally."

a) By their too early enlistment in the ranks of the employed;
(b) By lack of guidance in the choice of occupations suited to their physical and mental capacity;
(c) By inadequate opportunities to secure skilled training, and by insufficient safe guarding and husbanding of their physical powers and resources."

Our Allies have acknowledged the very grave mistake they made by allowing children to be withdrawn prematurely from schools and even before the signing of the armistice, both France and England had taken steps to restore the compulsory school laws.

Splendid Way To Reduce Your Weight

There is perhaps no one thing that so plainly shows the passing of our youth as the horrible tendency to put on too much weight after we have reached the age of 25 or 30 years. However young our faces may appear, the sagging, flabby figure and forty inch waist "gives us away."

The cause of this over stoutness is that our stomachs convert the food we eat into fat because there is not enough oxygen in the blood to produce a proper combustion to destroy the excess fatty tissue. Fat people will be pleased to learn of a simple home method that is wonderfully efficient in reducing weight, quickly and easily without a starving diet, violent massage or strenuous exercise. Go to any drug store and get a box of Phynola; take five grains after each meal and at bed time. This treatment will often give quick relief from overburdening fat. Phynola taken at meal time assists the stomach in giving you the benefit of the food you eat; at the same time dissolves the fatty tissue from any part of the body where there is excessive fat. By this method many have reduced their weight a pound a day and there is no flabbiness left. Sayre and Hemphill, or any druggist can supply you with the genuine Phynola at a small cost. adv.

MRS. MAY COULD NOT WORK

Made Well and Strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Columbia, Pa.—"I was very weak and run down and had dragging-down pains and pains in my back. I could not get around to do my work and had to sit down and rest often during the day. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the papers and read the testimonials, so I thought I would try it. Now I am healthier than I ever was in my life, and can recommend it to any woman who suffers as I did."

—Mrs. ELIZABETH MAY, R.F.D. No. 1, Columbia, Pa.

The reason Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming woman's ills is because it contains the tonic, strengthening properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, which act on the female organism. Women from all parts of the country are continually testifying to its strengthening, curative influence, and the letters which we are constantly publishing from women in every section of this country prove beyond question the merit of this famous root and herb medicine.

They made public declaration of the great injury inflicted upon children by thoughtless action when the first shortage of labor became apparent. "The result of that raid has been an irreparable damage, a damage which it will be quite impossible for us hereafter to repair adequately."

England has set about immediately to make what reparation she can through a new educational bill, which raises the requirement from 12 to 15 years, with part time education to 18. The writer of the bill, in introducing it, said: "Economy is in the air. We are told to economize in our expenditures and food stuffs. I suggest that we should economize in the human capital of the country—our most precious possession which we have too long neglected. We do not want to waste a single child. We desire that every child in the country should receive the form of education best adapted to fashion his qualities to the highest use."

YOU NEED NOT SUFFER FROM CATARRH

But You Must Drive It Out of Your Blood.

Catarrh is annoying enough when it chokes up your nostrils and air passages, causing difficult breathing and other discomforts. Real danger comes when it reaches down into your lungs. This is why you should at once realize the importance of the proper treatment, and lose no time experimenting with worthless remedies which touch only the surface. To be rid of Catarrh, you must drive the disease germs out of your blood.

Splendid results have been reported from the use of S. S. S., which acts on the catarrh germs in the blood.

TEST NERV-WORTH WITHOUT TAKING ONE CENT OF RISK

That's What J. C. Hizer Did When He Bought the First Bottle.

That's what the reader can do. Every Nerv-Worth ad says "Your dollar back if this famous family tonic does not benefit you." Mr. Hizer said:

"Before I purchased a bottle of Nerv-Worth from you I was in a bad nervous condition. Could not digest or assimilate my food and was becoming weak and very much run down. After eating my heart would flutter and intermit and I became very much alarmed. For a year I subsisted on soup. Could not eat anything else. Gas formed in my stomach and I would bloat badly and my stomach was sore and painful. Many nights could not sleep but lay awake all night. Had severe headaches and rheumatic pains in legs and arms. Now after using three bottles of Nerv-Worth I am rid of all the ailments mentioned and am regaining my strength and vigor. The doctors failed to help me in the least. SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Captain Lindsay P. Johns, of the Twenty-seventh Infantry, U. S. A., serving in Siberia, who with Corporal Spierling was taken prisoner by Cossacks and later managed to escape. Both men were in uniform and on official business when captured by the Cossacks. The flogging of Corporal Spierling by the Cossacks and the reported action of a Japanese major, who is said to have told the Americans that if an attempt were made to rescue them he would order his Japanese troops to the aid of the Cossacks, has caused quite a furore in Washington. Captain John's home is in Winchester, Ky.

EXPRESSES A DESIRE TO AID MANY FRIENDS

Well Known Ironton Woman Says She'll Them to try Tru-tona.

Ironton, Ohio, Oct. 9. — "I honestly think that Tru-tona is a wonderful medicine and I can recommend it to all of my friends who are suffering from troubles like mine," Mrs. C. Smith, who is 62 years old, has lived in Ironton for the past forty-two years and is well known here.

"My principal ailment was stomach trouble, from which I have suffered a number of years," Mrs. Smith said. "My appetite was poor and the little I ate always resulted in my experiencing a heavy bloated feeling in my stomach. I often had the headache and was usually constipated. I had become so nervous I couldn't sleep at night I tried many different medicines but they didn't seem to help me."

"But that was before I found Tru-tona. I had been using Tru-tona only a few days when I noticed an improvement in my condition. Now, I can eat almost anything without having trouble with my stomach afterwards. The heavy, bloated feeling has ceased to follow my meals. My constipation has been relieved and the headaches I formerly experienced are things of the past. My food seems to taste better, too, and I'm at last able to sleep well at night."

Tru-tona, the perfect tonic, is now being introduced and explained in Xenia at Sayre and Hemphill's.

"There are two other points," spoke Mary, and her face softened as she then read sincerity and the love that had stood the test of years in her husband's face.

"Oh, yes, I see 'sign.' Give me the pen. There you are. Fourteenth point. 'Seal.' I will, Mary, and never again will you have occasion to complain. Seal—with a kiss." And Abner clasped Mary to his arms and gave those longing, trembling lips a resounding smack.

CHAPTER LXXXIX.

Everett had been called to the telephone almost before he had closed the door. Hetty had answered the call, and had said:

"A lady wishes to speak to you, sir." I stood at the head of the stairs, ready to rush down and welcome Everett, when she spoke. He had not seen me, so I drew back into shadow and waited.

"Yes—really, I feel flattered. Yes—in half or three quarters of an hour. Very well, I promise."

As he hung up the receiver, I called:

"Is that you Everett?"

"Yes."

"You will have to hurry—you are late tonight."

He had come up the stairs as I spoke.

"I am going out, so run down and eat your dinner."

"Out to dinner?" I could not keep the disappointment from my voice, although I held up my face for a kiss as usual.

"Yes."

"Where are you going Everett? I have been blue all day. I had so hoped we might have a nice evening!"

To my surprise he answered my question instead of either ignoring or evading it as was his custom.

"I am going to Mrs. Barton's. She wants a fourth for bridge and asked me to oblige her."

"She—didn't ask—me?"

"No," impatiently. "Didn't I tell you she only wanted me to make a fourth at bridge?"

"But I could look on. It would be better than sitting alone." He paid no attention to my remark, but hurried with his dressing. Hetty just then announced dinner, and he told me—no, ordered me—to go down at once.

"And do not sit up for me. I shall be very late most likely. Irma's bridge parties are usually long drawn out affairs."

"I don't want any dinner, Everett, if I have to eat alone. Let me stay with you until you are dressed. Later if I am hungry, I will have Hetty bring me something on a tray."

"Go down to your dinner at once!"

I am surprised that you should act so foolishly.

Forcing back my tears, I left him. I was so hurt that I did not call to him when he went out, or run to kiss him as usual. He just put his head in the dining room long enough to say:

"Good night," and to repeat his caution about retiring.

"Why should he be with another woman while I am alone?" I said to myself, as I choked back a sob. "It is not fair. And Leola wouldn't sit meekly here alone while he was having a good time. I won't either—I'll do something!"

I thought of the letters, but somehow I just couldn't read any more love talk of Leola's. But Everett had said he would be late. I would go up into the attic after Hetty and Mrs. Gray were in bed, and bring the rest of the letters down to my room and hide them, then return the keys to the place from which I had taken them.

I wandered into the music room and played a little. Then the telephone rang. To my surprise and embarrassment, it was Walter Kemp.

"Are you and Mr. Graham spending the evening at home, and if so, may I join you?" he asked.

"Mr. Graham is out and I—have a headache. Please excuse me tonight!"

"I am so sorry. Is there something I can do for you?"

"No, thank you. I shall go to bed and sleep it off. Good night."

"Good night—but I shall call and ask to come some other time."

A little while after I had hung up the receiver, Hetty brought me a lovely box of roses. I wished they had been some other flower—roses made me think of Leola.

What should I tell Everett? Would he be angry because Mr. Kemp had sent them? Suddenly I knew! I would do just as Leola had done—I would hold the roses close in my arms until they wilted. That Leola held them so because they were from the man she loved, and I for no reason save that she done so, never struck me as ridiculous—at the time.

The NEW EDISON

No Needles to Change

Even Records of All Other, Makes Sound More Human When Played on The New Edison

If you've ever heard Arthur Fields on the vaudeville stage, you know what a popular favorite he is; how he "puts over" every song he sings. The illustration is from a photograph taken at the Edison Recording Laboratories and shows Mr. Fields standing beside the New Edison and singing in direct comparison with the Re-Creation of his voice. At the table are seated three experts, who pass on each Edison recording. In the group surrounding them are several popular Edison artists who happened to be at the Edison Recording Laboratories when this test was made. Among them are Collins and Harlan, world-famed singing comedians; George Wilton Ballard, the popular ballad singer; Cesare Sodero, Director of Sodero's Band; and Eugene Jaudas, Leader of the Jaudas Society Orchestra.

When this critical assemblage heard this remarkable test, they exclaimed in one accord, "It's you, Arthur." The New Edison has never failed, in similar comparisons, to bring forth a similar verdict. None but Mr. Edison has ever dared such a test.

WETS AND DRY LINE UP FOR BIG OHIO CAMPAIGN

Columbus, (Special).—The 1919 Ohio wet and dry campaign is on in earnest. Both sides are lining up their forces for what is believed to be the crucial struggle. Wets have everything to gain and little to lose, except that for their defeat this year means complete elimination so far as this state is concerned. Drys stand to lose much if they fail to clinch the victory of last November by defeating the wets Nov. 4.

The belief on the part of some people that Ohio wets would not be able to put up a stiff fight this year because the breweries and saloons are outlawed, is not well founded. Wets are coming back strong. Their leaders have their organizations well in hand. There seems to be plenty of money at their disposal. They have hired agents everywhere and expect to conduct a rapid-fire publicity and speaking campaign.

On the surface it would not seem the wets could have much hope of success. Prohibition is even more successful than expected—especially in view of inadequate laws for its enforcement. While there are violations, for the most part the dry amendment is making good. The most rabid wet can not truthfully say prohibition is a failure. Every citizen knows it is successful and that the people generally do not want to go back to saloons, drunkenness, full jails and all the evils of old saloon days.

What, then, are the wets counting on to win?

They believe the drys are satisfied with their victory of last year and that they will not concern themselves about this year's campaign. The wets do not believe farmers and the small town voters will go to the polls Nov. 4. They know that a change of five votes to the precinct will put the state in the wet column and they are counting on the indifference of the drys and on their own activities to make this change.

As usual, the wet campaign is being conducted from Cincinnati. Recently wet workers from over the state were gathered there for encouragement and instruction. They were told Cincinnati would vote as strongly wet this year as in other campaigns, and that if the wets up the state will do their part, the brewers will win.

Dry workers are also busy with organizations in all the counties. They are finding some difficulty in stirring dry voters who got the idea that the campaign last year settled everything. As they realize what the brewers are trying to do, they are shaking off their lethargy and are lining up for the fight. Drys believe that before election day the state will be aflame with dry enthusiasm.

The benefits of prohibition are so apparent that when voters come to understand the brewers are actually trying not only to repeal statewide prohibition, but also to establish beer saloons everywhere in the state and sell beer as freely as lemonade, there is likely to be such an uprising as the state has not witnessed in years.

Aside from this bold move, by bringing a referendum on the Crabbe law enforcement code, the brewers are making a desperate effort to get into position where they can nullify the dry state amendment through lack of law enforcement machinery.

In short, the wets of Ohio are not only attempting to retake the state, which repudiated them a year ago, but if they succeed, it will give them prestige and will encourage them to go into next year's congressional campaign in an effort to elect a congress which will submit an amendment to repeal nationwide prohibition.

If Ohio drys fully realize what the brewers are attempting—and the dry organization will see that they do—keen-eyed observers predict Ohio's dry majority this year will approximate 75,000.

FLYING PARSON LEADS WESTBOUND AVIATORS

Remarkable Flights Made By
Maynard and Smith.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—Eastbound and westbound flyers met in the air at North Platte, Neb., in the transcontinental reliability race. Lieutenant B. W. Maynard, the "flying parson," spent the night at Cheyenne, Wyo., hundreds of miles ahead of the other westbound aviators, while Captain Lowell H. Smith, well in the lead of the contingent from the west, was at Omaha for the night.

Maynard flew 886 miles, 76 miles more than he covered Wednesday in sailing from New York to Chicago. But his time, chiefly due to adverse weather conditions, which in one form or another extended almost from coast to coast, was slower. He covered a distance of 1,669 miles in two days.

Captain Smith, after struggling through three mountain snowstorms and over three mountain ranges, reached Omaha at 7:20 o'clock last night, having made 852 miles without accident. His total distance since the start at San Francisco is 1,460 miles.

The remarkable flights of Maynard and Smith for two days have made the transcontinental race a record event in this country.

The De Havilland-4 piloted by Lieutenant E. V. Wales, with Second Lieutenant Goldsborough as observer, was wrecked in Ober Pass, Elk mountain. The flyers became lost in the heavy snowstorm and steered their plane into the side of the mountain. Lieutenant Wales was seriously injured.

EMPLOYERS GROUP PRESENTS PLATFORM OF PRINCIPLES

Washington, Oct. 10.—The employers group in President Wilson's industrial conference, headed by Harris A. Wheeler, a Chicago banker, submitted to the conference today a "platform of principles" which the employers of the country consider vital in governing the relations that must exist between capital and labor.

Chief among the principles set forth was that the open shop must be maintained throughout the nation. In that part of the platform was this significant statement: "No employer should be required to deal with men or groups of men who are not his employees or chosen by and from among them."

This was generally interpreted as in direct opposition to the principle of international trades unions and the settlement of disputes by international officers. The platform held rigidly to the principle that "outsiders" have not the right to interfere in the relations of employer and employee.

DEFENSES MUST BE BUILT AGAINST GERMAN COMMERCE

Washington, Oct. 10.—Congress must build defenses against German commerce as soon as the peace treaty is ratified, Senator Reed Smoot, Utah, declared today.

"Germany is prepared to flood the United States with dyestuffs, surgical goods and glassware as soon as trade relations are formally resumed and American industry will be forced to compete against prices which will be so low as to be unfair," Senator Smoot believes.

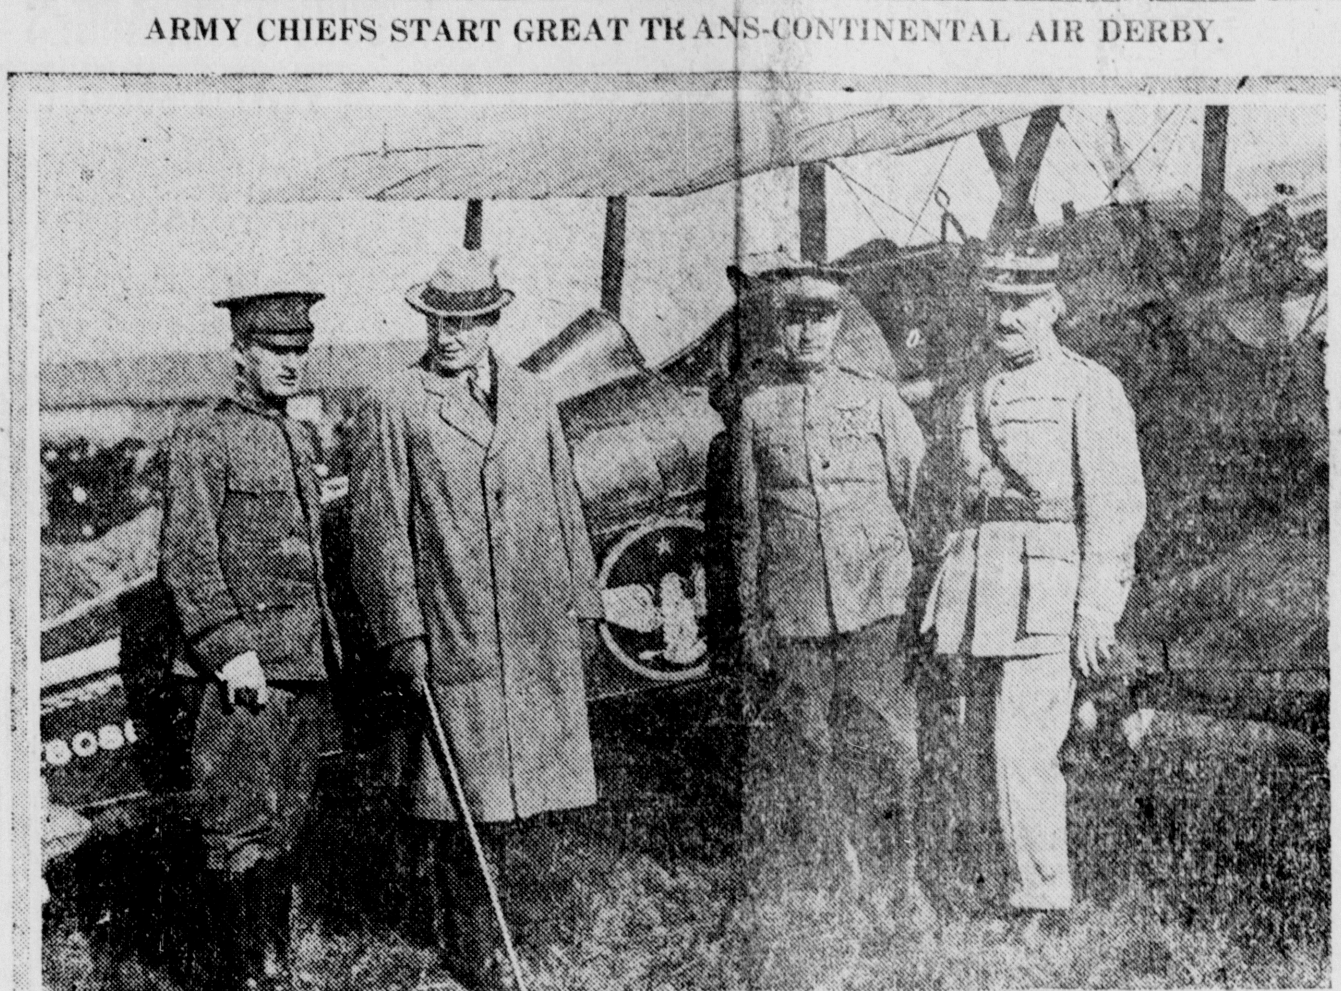

"Every German port of embarkation," he said, "is now loaded with goods which Germany will send to this country the minute peace is declared." Smoot has introduced an "anti-dumping bill which would give the secretary of the treasury power to forbid importation of goods sold to importers at unfair prices.

WILL ARRANGE FOR RED CROSS ROLL CALL

The directors of the Greene County Red Cross are requested to meet at the Chamber of Commerce on Friday evening, Oct. 17th, at 7:30. A strong campaign for nineteen twenty is to be staged a ten days' drive from Nov. 2nd, to 11th so kindly have names ready to head canvassing committee in your district. A full attendance is requested. R. S. Kingsbury Third roll call chairman, American Red Cross.

EXPORT PERMITS STOPPED

Washington, Oct. 10.—The issue of permits for exporting shipping through the port of New York was stopped by an order today from Director General of Railroads Hines on account of the strike there of longshoremen.

Army chiefs start trans-continental air derby.

The great trans-continental aerial derby in which eighty planes are competing got under way on October 8. More than fifty odd contestants started from Roosevelt Field, Minn. col. L. I., and at San Francisco a simultaneous start was made by twenty-five more planes. Each plane entered in this record contest has a tested speed of 100 miles an hour, and most of them are piloted by famous aviators. Major-General Barry and Brigadier-General Mitchell, Director of Military Aeronautics, were the official starters. Here are shown prominent army men who officiated at the start of the Eastern contingent of fliers: Left to right, Colonel Archie Miller, commandant of Roosevelt Field; Assistant Secretary of War Crowell, Brigadier-General W. L. Mitchell, Director of Military Aeronautics and Major Sagolis, of the French Army.

He is a son of Prof. and Mrs. S. O. Albaugh of 200 Sunset avenue, Dayton and will spend a few days with his parents before proceeding to the southern nation to take charge of the air service there.

"FLYING PARSON" IS KNOWN TO GREENE COUNTY YOUNG MEN

Lieutenant B. W. Maynard, the "flying parson," who is the leader of the west bound aviators in the trans-continental airplane race, is well known to Paul Creswell and William Shadrach. The local men attended ground school at Ohio State University in the same class with Maynard, and bunked only a few feet from him. After they entered active service each saw little of the other. All were commissioned. Lieutenant Creswell went to Italy and Lieutenants Maynard and Shadrach to France.

BAKE RITE BAKERY OPENS IN XENIA

The Bake Rite Bakery, one of the branches of the Bake Rite Sanitary Bakeries Co., which is located on East Main street, will open its doors for the first time Saturday.

The new bakery has prepared for a grand opening and on Saturday will give away a 15-cent loaf of full 24 ounce weight bread to every man or woman calling at their shop with a coupon. The coupons can be clipped from this issue of this paper.

The bakery is in charge of Jack R. Wood, who is general manager, and three bakers are employed. The head cake baker is John Costanti, a Frenchman, who has served six years in the United States army and is now on the reserve list. He holds a letter of commendation from his colonel showing that he broke the army baking record by turning out 58,000 pounds of bread in 24 hours on one occasion.

The baking and mixing is done in the front part of the shop in plain view of the public. People are invited to inspect the new, snowy white bakery, and watch the baking process. The free bread offer is only for Saturday and the company will be ready for business Monday. Local men are back of the enterprise.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 10.—When Clevelanders received their milk this morning they also received the unpleasant news that effective today, milk prices are a cent higher a pint and a cent higher a quart. Pints retail at ten cents now and quarts at 16. Increased wages to employees and higher prices to producers caused the raise, the distributors say.

His colleagues on the board of directors conferred this honor upon him again at the annual meeting which was held this week. At the same time A. L. Fisher was re-elected cashier of the bank.

One of the most important issues passed on at the convention, was the establishment of a county council of Legionnaires to be located in the county seat. Three delegates from each of the Posts in the county will sit in the county council, thus giving each Post representation. At present the council located here will consist of three delegates from Foody Post, three from Yellow Springs and three from Jamestown, and as other posts are organized they will be given representation.

LOCAL DELEGATES TO AMERICAN LEGION MEETING RETURN HOME

Post Commander C. L. Darlington and Post Adjutant Omer Tate, of Joseph P. Foody Post No. 95, American Legion, have returned from Columbus where they attended the State Convention of the Legion, Wednesday and Thursday, as representative of the local Post.

Both of the local delegates were honored by committee appointments at the convention. Mr. Darlington being a member of the committee on resolutions, one of the most important of committees and Mr. Tate was chairman of the committee on credentials.

Mr. Darlington was also elected a member of the state executive committee representing the southwest division which consists of 19 counties in this section of the state. The state is divided into five of these divisions including southeast, southwest, northwest, central, and the executive committee of nine includes five delegates from these divisions and four officers of the state organization, serving ex-officio.

Post Adjutant Omer Tate of Foody Post and Lowell Fess of Edgar Van Kirk Post, Yellow Springs, were selected at the convention to represent the Southwest Division at the National Convention, which will be held in Minneapolis, November 11. Greene county thus getting two representatives. Paul B. Turnbull, Vice Commander of Foody Post, was elected alternate to this convention.

The result of the convention will be reported to Joseph P. Foody Post at a meeting which will be called, soon, by the two delegates who attended it. Some very important issues were before the convention, the bonus question being bitterly fought, the state finally taking no action on the matter.

One of the most important issues passed on at the convention, was the establishment of a county council of Legionnaires to be located in the county seat. Three delegates from each of the Posts in the county will sit in the county council, thus giving each Post representation. At present the council located here will consist of three delegates from Foody Post, three from Yellow Springs and three from Jamestown, and as other posts are organized they will be given representation.

The soldier's insurance was given much time before the convention, and a number of bills concerning it were introduced, all of which were discarded in favor of the bill the Legion is now backing, which provides for a much better system and a more attractive operation of the insurance plan. This bill is now being rushed through by Senator Harding, and Foody Post will bring a speaker here to explain its workings after it is passed.

STILL IMPROVING

Washington, Oct. 10.—President Wilson's condition is becoming so favorable—although the progress is slow—that his health is soon expected to be such that it will allow Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, his personal physician to discontinue—probably at the close of this week—his daily bulletins on the president's condition of health.

This was learned authoritatively in White House circles today.

BLOCKADES GERMANY

Paris, Oct. 10.—Blockade of Germany resulting from Von Vongolzes refusal to withdraw his troops from Baltic provinces to be put into effect immediately supreme council directs reparations commission to put pressure on Germany to prevent raw materials from entering Germany until dispute involving Baltic district is settled.

ARBITRATION OF STEEL STRIKE IS URGED BY LABOR

Washington, Oct. 10.—Proposals designed to bring about better relations between employers and the employed were laid before the national industrial conference by members of the various groups making up the gathering. The proposals included:

Arbitration of the nation-wide steel strike with return of the men to work pending settlement; an industrial truce starting immediately and continuing three months; creation of an arbitration board by the president and congress and including among its members all ex-presidents; and a comprehensive plan for adjudication of industrial disputes through boards of arbitration in the various industries.

The conference also took its first concrete action in adopting a motion, offered by Thomas L. Chadbourne, a representative of the public, providing that a committee consisting of three members from each of the groups of employers, labor and the public, be appointed to investigate the high cost of living.

The proposal for settlement of the steel strike, introduced by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor and one of the delegates, came as a surprise to the groups representing the public and employers. In offering the proposal, Mr. Gompers explained that it had the support of the labor delegates, including the representatives of the railroad brotherhoods. The proposal, like all others submitted, under the conference rules was referred to the general committee, composed of five representatives of each group. It generally was believed that the proposal would be in the hands of this committee for some time.

As chairman of the public group Bernard Baruch introduced the proposal for an industrial peace, formulated by A. A. Landon of Buffalo, and the plan that a national board of conciliation and arbitration be created, which was put forward by Gavin McNab of San Francisco. In offering the proposals Mr. Baruch explained that he was merely acting for his group and that under the conference rules the introduction of the proposals did not indicate either that the proposals set forth the chairman's views or that they had the indorsement of the group.

The proposal for adjustment of labor disputes through joint boards of employers and workers in each industry, with appeal to central boards appointed by the president and a final appeal to an umpire, also came from the public group. It was drafted by Secretary of Labor Wilson.

MRS. J. S. FINNEY GIVES A SHOWER

Mrs. J. C. Finney entertained twenty-five guests Thursday afternoon of this week at a miscellaneous shower given for her niece, Miss Louisa Finney, whose marriage to Mr. Ernest Huey will take place October 30th. Many useful presents were received. The announcement was very cleverly made in the present of 30 young ladies at a Cinderella party given by Misses Olive and Alice Finney Saturday, September 27th. Miss Finney is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Finney. She was a graduate of Cedarville college last June. Mr. Huey was a student of the same college last year and is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Huey of Cedarville.

SENATOR WALSH IS AGAINST THE WORLD LEAGUE

Washington, Oct. 10.—Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, in a speech in the senate, made a dramatic appeal for a league of nations that would do justice to oppressed nations of the world, and for reservations to the pending league covenant.

Vice President Marshall at the conclusion of the senator's speech, broke up in its very beginning a demonstration that threatened for a moment to sweep through the senate galleries.

For more than an hour senators and visitors had listened intently to the address, and as Senator Walsh laid down the last page of his manuscript and, with arms raised high, pleaded against approval of the Shantung settlement "and the dangers lurking in article 10" of the league covenant, a faint ripple of applause was instantly followed by a more pronounced outburst. But it was quickly subdued. The strident voice of the vice president was heard above the rising din. "Remove from the galleries those who have violated the rules of the senate," the vice president shouted, at which gallery guards hustled out a few of the offenders.

The speech of Senator Walsh drew a large attendance, and because of the uncertainty as to where he stood he received undivided attention. He quickly cleared away all doubt, however, and frankly announced his regret at parting with his Democratic colleagues in voting for treaty reservations, and in so doing declared he was not breaking away from his party principles.

Touches Upon Article 10.

Contending that under article 10 American soldiers could be ordered to any part of the world by the league council, Senator Walsh turned to senators on his own side of the chamber and asked: "May I not fairly argue that this article is capable of so many interpretations, vague and visionary, that as it stands it is pregnant with germs of dispute, misunderstandings and possibly wars for the United States?"

Americans of Irish blood, Senator Walsh said, merely were asking "The United States not to join in any league or make any agreement with other nations which may hinder or forever bar oppressed peoples from obtaining independence." Those of Irish blood, he told the senate, were not opposed to a just league of nations and did not seek in any way to involve the United States in a controversy with Great Britain.

With much feeling Senator Walsh declared that speaking the uppermost convictions of Irish-Americans, more than a half million of whom were in the war, that as "much as they yearned to see their kindred free, much as their hearts are torn by the events in Ireland, by the harassing, dragging and repression of the people of that sad little island, as citizens of this republic their first concern is for the safety, honor and preservation of this land of their birth and adoption."

Referring to President Wilson's statement that "America was trusted throughout the world," Senator Walsh said, "surely not by representatives of the British empire, or by Japan."

The other speeches were by Senator France, Republican, of Maryland, who gave the second installment of his 35,000-word address begun Wednesday, and Senator Nelson, Republican, Minnesota, who told in 30 minutes of his strong desire to see a lasting peace that would forever shut out the threat of war.

TWO SHOTS FIRED AT U. S. SENATORS

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 10.—Just as Senators Kenyon and McKellar of the steel strike investigating committee stepped from an automobile at the gates of the Homestead steel works today, two shots were fired from a passing street car. The senators rushed into the offices of the plant while the state constabulary rushed the car and arrested a number of foreigners. No one was hurt by the shooting. Senators Phipps and Sterling arrived at the plant several minutes earlier.

"I am sorry could not attend the home coming of the Reds, for their brilliant feats in baseball have given our city tremendous beneficial advertisement," said the mayor.

BE PREPARED FOR INFLUENZA

CUT THIS OUT.
Many medical men say we will probably have another epidemic this fall. Let us all hope and pray we will not. But at the same time let us be well prepared.
The flu as it is called, usually starts with a cold and tightness in the chest. If you even suspect there is a chance that you may be getting influenza take a good dose of laxative tea, such as Dr. Carter's Ki & B Tea or Coler's King and send for your physician. While you are waiting for the doctor rub Begy's Mustard on throat and chest. Rub it on freely and never mind if it does feel good and hot, it cannot blister even the tenderest skin.
But don't stop at throat and chest; get some one to rub this enemy of inflammation over your shoulder blades. This is one of the most sensible precautions you can take against pneumonia which often quickly follows the flu and is just what the doctor tries hard to sidetrack.
You can get Begy's Mustard for 25 and 50 cents in yellow boxes all ready for use at any drug store.
Remember it is made of real yellow mustard. Use it for sore throat, coughs, chest, colds, pneumonia, bronchitis, lumbago and all aches and pains.

COURT DISCHARGES TWO YOUNG GIRLS

Mabel and Dorothy Webb, aged 16 and 13 years old of Bellbrook, were discharged from custody by Judge J. C. Marshall after a hearing on a delinquency charge in juvenile court Thursday morning. The girls will be kept under close supervision by the court, and their parents promised Judge Marshall that they would be kept off the streets and watched closely.

John and Charles Pence, 123 East Second street Dayton, who were with the girls when they were taken into custody at the soldiers home last Saturday night told the same story to the court as was told by the girls. They said that they met the girls at 11:40 last Friday night in front of their rooming house, where the girls were waiting for them in a taxi in which they had ridden from Spring Valley. John paid the taxi driver $5 and the two couples roamed about, according to their story, until 2 o'clock, when the boys left the girls at St. Clair and Second streets. The boys said they went on home, and that the girls told them they would go to the home of a cousin. The Pence brothers are aged 21 and 23.

Mac Webb, father of one of the girls, is a cripple due to rheumatism and had to be carried into court in a chair.

AN INTERESTING CEREMONY HELD AT ST. BRIGID'S CHURCH

With impressive services, the sacrament of confirmation was administered to a class of 68 children and three adults by the Most Rev. Henry Moeller, archbishop of the diocese of Cincinnati, at St. Brigid's church last night.

The children made a most attractive picture, the little girls in white frocks with short filmy veils falling about their shoulders, and the boys wearing white blouses and dark knickerbockers. The altars were banked with white flowers and lighted tapers.

Prior to administering confirmation Archbishop Moeller gave a discourse touching upon parish affairs, matrimony, education, but his chief topic was the Holy Eucharist.

The service closed with solemn benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The pastor, the Rev. Albert Burke, was assisted by the following visiting clergymen, who took part in the service: Very Rev. Bernard O'Reilly, S. M., Mt. St. John; the Rev. William O'Conner, Jamestown; the Rev. William Casey, South Charleston; the Rev. Martin Varley, and the Rev. Jerome O'Regan of Cincinnati the Rev. Edward Deppenbrock, Yellow Springs; the Rev. John McGlinchey, West Jefferson; the Rev. Charles Ertel, Wilmington; The Rev. James Ward and the Rev. James Wade, Dayton.

Archbishop Moeller left Xenia for Dayton immediately following the services, and took a late train from that city to Cincinnati. He was the guest of Father Burke Thursday afternoon and for dinner Thursday evening, when visiting clergymen were also entertained.

HAVE YOU A STOVE TO SELL?

In complaining about her paper being late one evening this week, one of our subscribers living at the edge of town said that they had been wanting a stove, and were waiting to find one through the classified ads, and as their paper was late it gave others a chance to get the stoves that were advertised before they could. This proves the confidence placed by the public in classified advertising, and if you have any stoves or other articles you want to sell, remember that there is someone just waiting for them to be advertised. Read and use the classified ads daily.

Seven Things To Be Sure Of IN THE PURCHASE OF YOUR PIPELESS HEATING SYSTEM

- 1 That the quality of heating service assures a comfortable, clean, healthful home in any weather.
- 2 That the convenience of simple operation, regulation, and quick heating compares favorably with much more expensive types of heating systems.
- 3 That the low first cost is due to economy of material and labor instead of cheapness of construction.
- 4 That the fuel bill can be reduced from 1-4 to 1-3—enough to save handsome dividends on the amount invested.
- 5 That the "upkeep," or expense for repairs, is positively less than any other types of heating systems.
- 6 That you are protected at this store, because of the manufacturer's refusal to authorize installation where their trained heating engineers cannot safely guarantee it to operate efficiently in your home, their decision being made after careful study of conditions in your home—no guess work—thus protecting all concerned.
- 7 That the purchase will increase the value of your property more than the amount invested.

LABOR TROUBLE NOT HIT- TING CLEVELAND.

Cleveland has been cited by national investigators as being freer from industrial disputes than most other large centers of industry in the country, due to the advanced state of co-operative effort between employers and employees. One of the foremost advocates of the theory of giving workers a voice in the management is Paul L. Feiss, president of the Chamber of Commerce and head of a large clothing manufacturing company. He was chosen by President Wilson to be one of the representatives of the public in the national round-table conference in Washington to discuss questions of labor and its relation to capital.

To further efforts in this direction Mayor Harry L. Davis has issued a call for the organization of a municipal round table, to be similar to the national council, but to be a permanent advisory body. Five members are to be appointed from delegates proposed by the Chamber of Commerce, five from those proposed by the Federation of Labor and five selected by the Mayor to represent the public. The function is to interpret industrial problems.

In Mr. Feiss's factory there is an organization of workers based on the national assembly. Delegates are elected by the workers and to this factory legislative body grievances and suggestions for the benefit of employees and company are placed. The powers of the body give the employees virtually the right to determine hours and wages, with the company representatives frankly opening its books and showing whether changes are possible at times.

The employees are granted a week's vacation yearly with pay. Schools are conducted for the advancement of the workers, on factory time. Officials say production has increased.

Of the national conference, Mr. Feiss says: "It is clear that in the struggle between capital and labor the public suffers. A stabilized labor condition will mean elimination of the cost of strikes."

THE WAY TO GET TRADE IS TO GO FOR IT.

An Argentine went into the Buenos Aires salesroom of an American automobile concern, and after looking over several cars said:

"I like this one—how many weeks before you can make delivery?"

"You can have it now," said the salesman.

"What! You mean that I can have this identical car today?" exclaimed the Argentine doubtfully.

"Yes, this very car," said the salesman. "You can drive it out the door here. I will teach you to drive."

"Car-ramba!" exclaimed the Argentine in astonishment.

Up to that time the Argentines had been accustomed to selecting an automobile of European make by sample at the Buenos Aires importers' show-room and waiting several months until the car itself could be shipped from Europe. When the Americans came with a stock of cars on hand, ready to sell right over the counter, and, better yet, a complete stock of repair parts, backed by willing service when the car owner got into trouble, it was something new.

CONTRACT FOR PAVING IS LET

At the regular meeting of the City Commission Thursday evening, the contract for the street paving was officially awarded to J. E. Conley, contracting engineer of Dayton.

The contract for the sewer work was also officially awarded to C. O. Wetzel, of Dayton. Both were lowest bidders for the work. No further business of importance was taken up by the commission.

DON'T SPOIL YOUR CLOTHES.
That is why they use Red Cross Ball Blue. All leading grocers 5 cents.

HIGH PRICES ARE SECURED AT SALE

Unusually high prices for a small sale were received at the public sale of Joseph H. Michener, held at his farm in the Peterson neighborhood Thursday.

The sale totalled $2,000 which was considered good for the size of the sale. Three head of horses, 8 head of cattle, 14 hogs, farm implements and harness sold on the block.

R. R. Griener and John Webb were the auctioneers and J. E. Sutton, clerk. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Union church served lunch.

ENGINEER IS ENGAGED BY CITY

John Flotron Hale, of Dayton, nephew of S. O. Hale of this city, and a graduate of the engineering school at Ohio State University, has been retained as engineer for the city during the paving work.

Mr. Hale has been employed in the engineering department of the city of Dayton for some time. He started to work Friday morning. Mr. Hale takes the place of John W. Guilday, who has returned to school at the University at Cincinnati and who will assist in the city engineering department, on alternating two weeks when the does not go to school.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach.

Says inside-bathing makes anyone look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside-bathing. Men and women who are accustomed to wake up with a dull, aching head or have furred tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, sallow complexion, others who have bilious attacks, acid stomach or constipation are assured of pronounced improvement in both health and appearance shortly.

Loves Her Cows and Chickens Again.

"I have had stomach trouble for twenty years and for the past year have eaten nothing but stale bread and drank hot water. Was too weak to do any kind of work. Six weeks ago I took the first dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and am now doing all my housework besides looking after my chickens and milking two cows every day. Mine has been a wonderful recovery." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

Sayre and Hemphill and druggists everywhere.

Pay a Fair Price For Shoes!

You know, as well as we do, that everything is higher now. Shoes too. Don't try to hold down to the old price you've been used to paying. Low price shoes must be low quality shoes these days. Pay a little more; get good shoes; it's far cheaper in the end.

Miss Josephine Marie Kelly.

Miss Josephine Marie Kelly of Chicago, a beautiful young Red Cross worker, who is said to have captivated King Alexander of Greece, returned home recently denying she is betrothed to the young ruler. Miss Kelly's conquest of the young Grecian ruler is said to have been made when she went to his land for Red Cross service after serving in France, England and Italy. Miss Kelly says she met King Alexander at a ball in the Royal Theater in Athens one night. The King danced with her and invited her to tea at the palace. Miss Kelly's uncle, Wm. HOOVEN AND ALLISON COMPANY PUTS NEW GUARANTEED ROPE ON MARKET

CORDAGE MILLS
HOOVEN & ALLISON CO., XENIA, OHIO

"Blue Heart" is the trade mark of a new guaranteed rope that is being placed on the market by The Hooven & Allison Company. It is the very last word in high class rope. When this company which has always had the reputation of making the very best rope on the market puts its stamp on this new "Blue Heart" rope proclaiming it better than any yet produced by this world famous company, then it must be real rope. The new rope is being placed on the market by means of a national advertising campaign in twelve magazines of national reputation. Later the campaign will probably be continued in the smaller publications and daily papers.

"Blue Heart" rope is made in various sizes from three-sixteenths of an inch to over two inches in diameter. It is guaranteed to excel the breaking strength required by the United States Bureau of Standards and it is shown by tests conducted by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology as the strongest commercial rope in the United States. This new grade of rope has been developed during two years of experiments and was put on the market during the past few months. The rope is identified by a blue cord run through the heart of the rope. It is the trade mark and the company's guarantee. The Hooven & Allison Company has been making cordage since 1869 and since that time has grown to be one of the greatest cordage making concerns in the world. It is rated as the third largest cordage company in the world, having four plants at Xenia

North Kansas City, Mo., Covington, Ky., and Cincinnati. The floor space of the four plants covers twelve acres of ground and the plant space of the four concerns is thirty-six acres. Xenia is to be congratulated upon having such a splendid industry situated within its gates as it has materially helped to advertise Xenia throughout the United States and the world.

INVESTIGATION OF HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING MAY SOON BE MADE

An investigation of the Central High School building to see if it is in such a condition to house safely over 300 Xenian students, was made by the Chamber of Commerce Thursday evening, when Superintendent Waltz brought out that in view of the fact that the building seemed unsafe when all of the children were moving, that he considered it more disastrous than an actual fire. He advocated the erection of a new building.

Mr. Waltz also spoke on the subject of salaries. He said that 50 per cent of the teachers in the public schools were inexperienced because Xenia did not pay enough to secure experienced teachers. Mr. Waltz led the discussion on the subject of the school building. He said that while the school was supposed to hold a fire drill once a month

Gives Strength to the Nervously Weak and Run-down.

Peptron is both medicine and food for the blood and nerves. It is in full accord with advanced science as to the proper treatment of anemic and neurasthenic condition, in which the need of more and better nourishment is so apparent. It combines iron and manganese with nux, celery, pepsin and other tonics and digestives. It supplies the deficiency of red blood corpuscles in anemia, repairs the waste of nerve tissue in nervousness, gives color and stamina and restores vitality.

BRIDGE PARTY AT ADAIR HOME IS CHARMING EVENT

The attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adair, North Galloway street, was lovely in autumn decorations Thursday evening, for their bridge party, when forty-four guests enjoyed their hospitality.

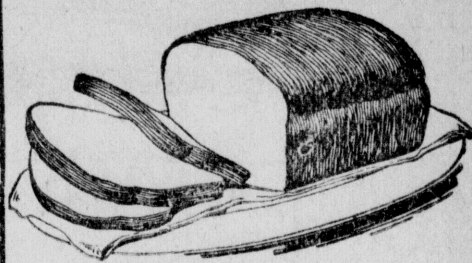

Hydrangea and the graceful ribbon grass was used in the house, while vines, and the scarlet berries of the bittersweet add a touch of loveliness to the enclosed porch. The yellow shaded lamps cast a prettily tinted glow.

After the games, and when the scores had been counted, a two course supper was served at the card tables. The out of town guests at the affair were Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Waddell of Pittsburg, who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Adair.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adair will have another larger company for bridge next Tuesday evening.

Famo Makes Women's Hair Grow Luxuriantly

Beautiful, healthy, lustrous new hair comes to the head on which FAMO is used regularly. Women have reported to us that their hair grew as much as four to six inches after faithful and conscientious use of FAMO, which is the one hair preparation which can be used daily with beneficial results.

It also grows men's hair, even where baldness is beginning to appear. Unless the hair roots are absolutely dead, FAMO will grow hair.

FAMO grows new hair because it destroys the scabrous germ which is killing the hair.

The scabrous bacilli go down into the glands and attack the hair roots. Unless they are destroyed they will eventually kill the hair.

With the germ at work the hair is fighting for its life. Nature fights against disease. But it cannot conquer—alone.

FAMO will give the necessary aid to assure a healthy scalp.

FAMO will destroy the dandruff bacilli and make the hair grow luxuriantly.

It stops all itching of the scalp. FAMO is the result of three years of scientific experimentation in one of the recognized pharmaceutical laboratories of Detroit.

Its ingredients have been well known to physicians for years but have never before been used on the head. FAMO has accomplished wonderful results. Every member of the family should use it regularly. It contains no alcohol.

FAMO is sold at all toilet goods counters and applications may be had at the better barber shops and hair dressing establishments.

It comes in two sizes—a small size at 35 cents and an extra large bottle at $1. Your money will be refunded if you are not satisfied.

Seborrhea is the medical name for a morbidly increased flow from the sebaceous glands of the scalp. The seborrheic excretion forms in scales or flakes and is commonly known as dandruff.

WALTER HESS IS GIVEN A SURPRISE

One of the most enjoyable times of the season was that given at the home of Mr. Walter Hess of the Upper Bellbrook pike Wednesday evening, when Mrs. Hess entertained at a surprise party, honoring Mr. Hess. The occasion was his birthday. About one hundred friends and relatives were present. Music, games and social chat formed the amusement for the evening. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and mints were served by the hostess, assisted by the Misses Golda Pawcett and Mildred Funk.

Catarrh Of the Stomach Is Dangerous

"Thousands Have It and Don't Know It," Says Physician. Frequently Mistaken for Indigestion—How to Recognize and Treat.

Thousands of people suffer of more or less constantly from furred, coated tongue, bad breath, sour burning stomach, frequent vomiting, rumbling in stomach, bitter eructations, gas, wind and stomach acidity and call it indigestion when in reality their trouble is due to gastric catarrh of the stomach. Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because the mucous membrane lining of the stomach is thickened and a coating of phlegm covers the surface so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the food and digest them. This condition soon breeds deadly disease in the fermented unassimilated food. The blood is polluted and carries the infection throughout the body. Gastric ulcers are apt to form and frequently an ulcer is the first sign of a deadly cancer.

In catarrh of the stomach a good and safe treatment is to take before meals a teaspoonful of pure Bisulphated Magnesia in a half a glass of hot water as hot as you can comfortably drink it. The hot water washes the mucus from the stomach walls and draws the blood to the stomach while the bisulphated magnesia is an excellent solvent for mucus and increases the efficiency of the hot water treatment. Moreover the Bisulphated Magnesia will serve as a powerful but harmless antacid which will neutralize any excess hydrochloric acid that may be in your stomach and sweeten its food contents. Easy, natural digestion without distress of any kind should follow. Bisulphated Magnesia is not a laxative, is harmless, pleasant and easy to take and can be obtained from any local druggist. Don't confuse Bisulphated Magnesia with other forms of magnesia, milk, citrates, etc., but get it in the pure bisulphated form (powder or tablets), especially prepared for this purpose.

GREAT CROWD WATCHES GAZETTE BASEBALL SCORES

A crowd that almost blocked traffic on South Detroit street waited for the final baseball returns in front of the score board in the office of the Gazette and Republican Thursday afternoon.

The crowd was the largest that took advantage of the score board service of these papers any time during the series, due in all probability, to the importance of the final fracas. Fans in vehicles stopped in the street and traffic was practically suspended as they waited anxiously for the result of the final frame, which proclaimed the Reds the base balling champions of the universe.

The Gazette and Republican service on the big series was in every way satisfactory to the patrons of these papers. The city edition of the Gazette was held every evening for the game, and the bugs here were given the story every evening. The papers were put on the streets anywhere from 45 minutes to an hour and fifteen minutes before the baseball editions of the Dayton papers and at least three hours before the sport extras of the Cincinnati papers. Thursday evening, the baseball edition of the Gazette was being sold on the streets an hour and fifteen minutes before there was another paper in the city.

The Gazette and Republican ticker service proved more popular with the fans this year than any service employed by these papers in other years. The inning was barely completed until the Western Union ticker tattooed the results on the tape in the office of these papers.

In this manner, the score, and the totals, the weather, batteries and umpires, which is all that the bug cares for in the early returns, were given him without a moment's delay. The city edition then, giving the story of the game, was on the streets just a

CABINET GIRL TO WED ON NOVEMBER 1.

Miss Mary Archer Glass. PHOTO BY CHINESE.

Miss Mary Archer Glass, daughter of the Secretary of the Treasury, will be married on November 1 to John Guerrant Boatwright, of Danville, Va., according to a report from Washington. The ceremony will be performed at the Church of the Covenant and a reception will follow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glass. Miss Glass is perhaps more widely known in Washington than any member of the family save the Secretary himself, as she was educated at Gunston Hall and was a great deal with her father while he was serving in Congress. Mr. Boatwright has recently been released from the army, having served overseas as a lieutenant of infantry.

THOSE EAR BOBS

Here is a picture of a dozen women in a newspaper. They are all charming women, with beautiful faces and poses except one. And what is the matter with her? She wears over her ear knobs of hair that make her look ridiculous and inhuman. So many girls wear those knobs these days, but if the matter were inquired into it would be found that the habit is confined to the silly young things who have an idea it is the fashion. But why should the little dears care for the fashion? Aren't their ears as lovely as their eyes and lips? Verily, there may be some who want to hide their ears because of some deformity and so it is would conclude from the multitudes of perfectly natural they should. One the ear bobs that there were a great many deformed ears about, and we would caution young men not to fall in love with them.

That's What J. C. Hizer Did When He Bought the First Bottle.

That's what the reader can do. Every Nerv-Worth ad says "Your dollar back if this famous family tonic does not benefit you." Mr. Hizer said:

"Before I purchased a bottle of Nerv-Worth from you I was in a bad nervous condition. Could not digest or assimilate my food and was becoming weak and very much run down. After eating my heart would flutter and intermit and I became very much alarmed. For a year I subsisted on soup. Could not eat anything else. Gas formed in my stomach and I would bloat badly and my stomach was sore and painful. Many nights could not sleep but lay awake all night. Had severe headaches and rheumatic pains in legs and arms. Now after using three bottles of Nerv-Worth I am rid of all the ailments mentioned and am regaining my strength and vigor. The doctors failed to help me in the least. I am thankful that I tried Nerv-Worth as it brought relief right from the start. J. C. HIZER."

QUIETLY WED AT RECTORY OF THE ST. BRIGID'S CHURCH

Miss Burnis Jeanette Critten daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Critten of Bartlettville, Okla., became the bride of George William Weber, Thursday morning the service taking place at the rectory of St. Brigid's

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

church at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Albert Burke officiated.

The bride was attired in a brown tailored suit with hat and shoes in the same shade, and her flowers were pink sweetheart roses, worn at the corage. Her cousin Miss Myrtle Coulter was the bride's maid and John Cronin attended the bridegroom as best man.

Following the service, Mr. and Mrs. Weber went to Indianapolis on a brief honeymoon trip. They will be at home in apartments on Collier street.

Mrs. Weber has been living in this city for some time, with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones of East Main street. She is a very lovely and attractive young girl. Mr. Weber is a son of Mrs. Anna Weber of East Main street. He is connected with the supply department of the Pennsylvania railroad as stock clerk.

Corns 'Tween Toes? Use Easy "Gets-It"

Any Corn or Callus Comes Off Peacefully, Gloriously, Never Fails.

It is easy for "Gets-It" to reach "hard-to-get-at" corns, and better yet, it is easy to remove them, because "Gets-It" makes them come

Any Corn Peels Off With "Gets-It". right off just like a banana peel. You can try to dig or drag out your corns with a knife, or slice them with a "bloody" razor, or use bandages and tape and wrap up your toe into a package, but that's the "treat-em-rough" painful, foolish way. Use 2 or 3 drops of "Gets-It" — that's the peaceful, sure, common-sense way that never fails. You reach the corn easily with the little glass rod in the cork of every "Gets-It" bottle. It does not hurt the true flesh. Try it, trot and smile! It's a blessing; never fails. "Gets-It" is the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Mfd by E. UNITED STATES ARMY CAPTAIN WHO WAS CAPTURED BY COSSACKS.

Captain Lindsay P. Johns.

Captain Lindsay P. Johns, of the Twenty-seventh Infantry, U. S. A., serving in Siberia, who with Corporal Sperling was taken prisoner by Cossacks and later managed to escape. Both men were in uniform and on official business when captured by the Cossacks. The flogging of Corporal Sperling by the Cossacks and the reported action of a Japanese major, who is said to have told the Americans that if an attempt were made to rescue them he would order his Japanese troops to the aid of the Cossacks, has caused quite a furore in Washington. Captain John's home is in Winchester, Ky.

THEY WILL NEVER LEARN

The inside workings of the newspaper office continue to be more or less of a mystery to the outside public, which apparently never will learn that the man who writes the moral editorials is not the one to call up at 1:30 a. m., in the effort to get the fact that you were fined $25 and costs for speeding kept out of the paper. —Ohio State Journal.

EXPRESSES A DESIRE TO AID MANY FRIENDS

Well Known Ironton Woman Says She'll Them to try Trutona.

Ironton, Ohio, Oct. 9.—"I honestly think that Trutona is a wonderful medicine and I can recommend it to all of my friends who are suffering from troubles like mine," Mrs. C. Smith, who is 62 years old, has lived in Ironton for the past forty-two years and is well known here.

"My principal ailment was stomach trouble, from which I have suffered a number of years," Mrs. Smith said. "My appetite was poor and the little I ate always resulted in my experiencing a heavy bloated feeling in my stomach. I often had the headache and was usually constipated. I had become so nervous I couldn't sleep at night I tried many different medicines but they didn't seem to help me.

"But that was before I found Trutona. I had been using Trutona only a few days when I noticed an improvement in my condition. Now, I can eat almost anything without having trouble with my stomach afterwards. The heavy, bloated feeling has ceased to follow my meals. My constipation has been relieved and the headaches I formerly experienced are things of the past. My food seems to taste better, too, and I'm at last able to sleep well at night.

Trutona, the perfect tonic, is now being introduced and explained in Xenia at Sayre and Hemphill's.

"President Wilson has set the mode for the correction of an involved situation with his fourteen points, and I have modeled after him. Read, they represent my unalterable decision."

Abner took up the paper bewilderedly. He began to read aloud. "Point one, I will never gamble again." Mary, trust me as to that, indeed. Point two, 'nor drink.' I never did. Point three, 'nor use tobacco.' Not guilty. Point four, 'nor swear.' Did you ever hear me do that?"

"No Abner, but what might you not do if you continue in a perverse way?"

"Point five, resumed Abner, 'home from lodge at ten.' I'll guarantee that. Point six, 'shave three times a week.' You're right, Mary. I have been getting careless and lazy. Point seven, 'keep my hair cut.' Certainly, it would improve my frowzy appearance. Point eight, 'let your wife visit her sister Anna three times a year.' Who objects? I'll go with you. Point nine, 'vote for suffrage.' Settled. Point ten, 'paint the house.' I'll get at it before noon. Point eleven, 'fix the leaky roof.' That, too. Point twelve, 'fix the home property so it won't be squandered.' I'll make it over in your name forthwith. Oh, Mary, you're making it easy for me.

"There are two other points," spoke Mary, and her face softened as she then read sincerity and the love that hid stood the test of years in her husband's face.

"Oh, yes, I see 'sign.' Give me the pen. There you are. Fourteenth point. 'Seal.' I will, Mary, and never again will you have occasion to complain. Seal—with a kiss," and Abner clasped Mary to his arms and gave those long, long, trembling lips a resounding smack.

CHAPTER LXXXIX.

Everett had been called to the telephone almost before he had closed the door. Hetty had answered the call, and had said:

"A lady wishes to speak to you, sir." I stood at the head of the stairs, ready to rush down and welcome Everett, when she spoke. He had not seen me, so I drew back into shadow and waited.

"Yes—really. I feel flattered. Yes—in half or three quarters of an hour. Very well. I promise."

As he hung up the receiver, I called:

"Is that you Everett?"

"Yes."

"You will have to hurry—you are late tonight."

He had come up the stairs as I spoke.

"I am going out, so run down and eat your dinner."

"Out to dinner?" I could not keep the disappointment from my voice, although I held up my face for a kiss as usual.

"Yes."

"Where are you going Everett?"

I have been blue all day. I had so hoped we might have a nice evening!

To my surprise he answered my question instead of either ignoring or evading it as was his custom.

"I am going to Mrs. Barton's. She wants a fourth for bridge and asked me to oblige her."

"She didn't ask—me?"

"No," impatiently. "Didn't I tell you she only wanted me to make a fourth at bridge?"

"But I could look on. It would be better than sitting alone." He paid no attention to my remark, but hurried with his dressing. Hetty just then announced dinner, and he told me—no, ordered me—to go down at once.

"And do not sit up for me. I shall be very late most likely. Irma's bridge parties are usually long drawn out affairs."

"I don't want any dinner, Everett, if I have to eat alone. Let me stay with you until you are dressed. Later if I am hungry, I will have Hetty bring me something on a tray."

"Go down to your dinner at once!"

"It's You, Arthur!"

The NEW EDISON

No Needles to Change
Even Records of All Other, Makes Sound More Human When Played on The New Edison

If you've ever heard Arthur Fields on the vaudeville stage, you know what a popular favorite he is; how he "puts over" every song he sings. The illustration is from a photograph taken at the Edison Recording Laboratories and shows Mr. Fields standing beside the New Edison and singing in direct comparison with the Re-Creation of his voice. At the table are seated three experts, who pass on each Edison recording. In the group surrounding them are several popular Edison artists who happened to be at the Edison Recording Laboratories when this test was made. Among them are Collins and Harlan, world-famed singing comedians; George Wilton Ballard, the popular ballad singer; Cesare Sodero, Director of Sodero's Band; and Eugene Jaudas, Leader of the Jaudas Society Orchestra.

When this critical assemblage heard this remarkable test, they exclaimed in one accord, "It's you, Arthur." The New Edison has never failed, in similar comparisons, to bring forth a similar verdict. None but Mr. Edison has ever dared such a test.
